I. When any Commissioned Officer belonging to the Indian Navy shall die in the Service of the East India Company out of the United Kingdom, whether his death shall take place on board Ship or on shore, the First Lieutenant of the Ship or Vessel to which such Officer belonged at the time of his death, or the Officer of such Ship or Vessel next in rank to the Commander thereof, or the Commander himself if there is no other Commissioned Officer on board, or any Officer he may appoint, shall immediately secure all his effects or equipage on board the said Ship or Vessel, or on shore in quarters, and any other effects of the deceased within the territorial possessions of the East India Company which the Commander of such Ship or Vessel shall direct or authorize to be collected or secured, and shall with all convenient speed, and not later than one month after the death of the Officer, with the assistance of two other Officers not under the rank of Purser or of Clerk in charge, such Clerk having served not less than two years at sea, to be appointed by the Commanding Officer of the said Ship or Vessel, make an inventory thereof, and transmit that inventory together with an account of the debts and credits to the Office of the Secretary to the Government of the Presidency of Bombay in the Marine Department, to the end that after payment of such Officer's marine or ship debts and the expenses of his interment, where any shall have been incurred, the overplus if any shall be paid over by the said Secretary to the legal representatives of the Officer so deceased as hereinafter mentioned.

II. When any Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or other person belonging to or serving in the Indian Navy shall die out of the United Kingdom in the Service of the East India Company, whether his death shall take place on board Ship or on shore, the First Lieutenant of the Ship or Vessel to which such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or other person belonged at the time of his death, or the Officer of such Ship or Vessel next in rank to the Commander thereof, or the Commander himself if there be no other Commissioned Officer on board, or any Officer he may appoint, shall immediately secure all his effects or equipage on board the said Ship or Vessel, or on shore in quarters, and any other effects of the deceased within the territorial possessions of the East India Company which the Commander of the Ship or Vessel shall direct or authorize to be collected or secured, and shall with all convenient speed, not later than one month after the death, in the presence of two other Officers of the rank in the preceding section mentioned, to be appointed by the Commander of the said Ship or Vessel, take an inventory thereof and of his credits, and shall take care that the same be applied in the first instance to the liquidation of his marine or ship debts, the remainder if any to be paid over to the Secretary to the Government of Bombay in the Marine Department in order that the same may be paid to the legal representatives of the deceased.

III. When any such Commissioned or Non-commissioned Officer or Seaman, or other person as aforesaid, shall at the time of his death as aforesaid have been detached temporarily from his own Ship and shall be serving with another Ship at a distance from his own, the Officers of the Ship in which the deceased was serving, as well as the Officers of the Ship to which the deceased belonged, at the time of his death, shall act in manner above directed in Sections I. and II. of this Act.

IV. If any Commissioned Officer or Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or other person belonging to or

V. The said First Lieutenant and other Officers to be selected and appointed for the purposes aforesaid are hereby required to take upon them the said duties, and faithfully discharge the same, and in all respects conform to the provisions and regulations hereinafter particularly specified.

VI. The effects and credits, within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, of Deserters from the Indian Navy, shall be collected and applied in like manner in payment of their marine or ship debts, and the remainder, if any, shall be brought to the credit of the said Company.

or dative, anything in any Act or Acts or law or laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. Any such effects, or the proceeds or surplus of such effects of any Officer, Seaman or other person so dying, when remitted to any person under any order of the Secretary to the Government of Bombay, or to such Secretary, shall not by reason of coming to the hands of such person or Secretary be taken to be assets or effects in the place to which such proceeds or surplus may be remitted, so as to render it necessary that administration should be taken out in respect thereof, and it shall be lawful for the Secretary to the Government of Bombay to order that such effects or the proceeds or surplus of any such effects shall be remitted to any other place in India where the same can more conveniently be paid over to the person or persons entitled thereto, and the obedience to the orders of such Secretary in respect to the payment and disposal of any such effects, proceeds or surplus of such effects, shall be a discharge from all actions, suits and demands in respect thereof, to any person to whose hands any such effects, proceeds or surplus shall have come, and which shall have been paid and disposed of under the order of such Secretary.

XII. The provisions of this Act are intended to apply and shall apply only to European Officers and Seamen, and to other persons being Europeans belonging to the Indian Navy, who may die as aforesaid.

XIII. And whereas the Governor in Council of Bombay made certain Rules, bearing date 27th July 1844, to be observed on the decease of European Officers and European Seamen belonging to the Indian Naval Service, purporting to be Rules made in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act of the 3rd and 4th Victoria and the Articles of War thereto annexed, and which Rules have been acted upon, it is hereby enacted that the said Rules shall no longer be acted upon, but that all Acts heretofore done within any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, which were authorized by the said Rules, shall be deemed to be valid, and that no act thereby authorized to be done shall be questioned in any court of justice in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company.

London, 20th April 1853.

To the Right Hon'ble the Earl of Clarendon,
&c. &c. &c.

My Lord,

I have the honor to announce to your Excellency, that His Majesty the Emperor has ordered, by a decree dated the 8th of March last, that an Universal Exhibition of Agricultural and Industrial products shall take place at Paris on the 1st of May 1855.

In hastening to make this communication to the Government of Her Britannic Majesty, I must at the same time, My Lord, assure it that the Exhibitors of this country who may respond to our invitation will receive all desirable facilities in regard to the reception, arrangement, and superintendence of their property in the Palace of Industry. A subsequent decree which I shall have the honor to communicate to your Excellency without delay, will determine the rest, in detailing the conditions on which our Universal Exhibition will be conducted, the rules to which the merchandize exhibited will be subject, and the various kinds of productions which will be admissible.

In conclusion, I must add, My Lord, that the Government of His Imperial Majesty hopes that Her Britannic Majesty's Government will, as far as lies in its power, call the attention of the industrious classes of this country to the Exhibition of 1855, that they may show the same readiness in responding to the invitation now addressed to them that England experienced on our part in 1851.

Be pleased to receive, &c. &c.,

ACT No. XI. OF 1853.

An Act to facilitate the removal of Nuisances and Encroachments below High-water Mark in the Islands of Bombay and Colaba.

WHEREAS there is a large sea-shore in the Islands of Bombay and Colaba, and it is expedient, with a view to the safe Navigation of the Harbour of Bombay, and to the public interests generally, to facilitate the removal of nuisances, obstructions and encroachments below high-water mark in the said Harbour, or upon or about the shores of the said Islands, it is enacted as follows:—

I. It shall be lawful for the Collector of Land Revenue at Bombay to give notice requiring the removal of any nuisance, obstruction or encroachment anywhere below high-water mark in the said Harbour of Bombay, or upon or about the shores of the said Islands; such notice shall be given by affixing the same in some conspicuous place on or near to the encroachment, obstruction or nuisance complained of, and by publication thereof in the Bombay Government Gazette, and shall state that unless the nuisance, obstruction or encroachment be removed or abated within one month, the same will be removed or abated by the said Collector; such notice may be in the Form No. I. in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like effect.

II. If any person shall deny the right of the said Collector to effect such abatement or removal, he shall, within one month after such notice shall have been given as aforesaid, apply to the Supreme Court of Judicature at Bombay, by petition, setting forth the grounds of his alleged right, and praying that the said Collector may be restrained from causing such abatement or removal, and the said Court may thereupon (on the petitioner's giving sufficient security for costs), fix a time for hearing and adjudicating upon such petition, and give such directions and make such orders as the said Court may think just, and the said Court may also make an order for restraining the alleged nuisance, obstruction or encroachment from being extended, or from being abated or removed by the said Collector, until after adjudication upon the said petition, or the dismissal thereof for want of prosecution.

III. Upon the hearing of every such petition, the onus of proving the alleged right shall be on the petitioner.

IV. No person shall be allowed after the expiration of such period of one month to present any such petition as aforesaid, unless on satisfactorily accounting to the said Court for the delay.

V. If no such petition shall be presented within the said period of one month, or if the same be presented and determined against the right of the petitioner, or be dismissed for want of prosecution, it shall be lawful for the Collector to cause such abatement or removal as aforesaid, by any person or persons to be authorized by warrant under his hand, and such warrant may be in the Form No. 2, in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like effect; and the said Collector, and any person acting under his warrant, shall not be answerable for any damage unavoidably occasioned in the removal of any such nuisance, obstruction or encroachment.

VI. The said Collector may sell the materials of any encroachment or obstruction removed under this Act, and may apply the proceeds of sale in or towards payment of the expenses of the removal, and if any surplus shall remain, the same shall be forfeited, and be paid and applied in such manner as the Governor of Bombay in Council shall direct.

VII. Correspondence regarding the amount of Stamp duty or Fee on Commissions of Officers promoted by Brevet and Regimentally.

7. "The difference of practice in converting the Stamp duty into the local currency, as pointed out by the Accountant General, ought not to have existed, as the sum inserted in the Pay and Audit Regulations of each Presidency is thirty shillings, or Company's rupees fifteen."

To the Right Hon'ble the Earl of Clarendon, &c. &c. &c.

My Lord,

I have the honor to announce to your Excellency, that His Majesty the Emperor has ordered, by a decree dated the 8th of March last, that an Universal Exhibition of Agricultural and Industrial products shall take place at Paris on the 1st of May 1855.

In hastening to make this communication to the Government of Her Britannic Majesty, I must at the same time, My Lord, assure it that the Exhibitors of this country who may respond to our invitation will receive all desirable facilities in regard to the reception, arrangement, and superintendence of their property in the Palace of Industry. A subsequent decree which I shall have the honor to communicate to your Excellency without delay, will determine the rest, in detailing the conditions on which our Universal Exhibition will be conducted, the rules to which the merchandize exhibited will be subject, and the various kinds of productions which will be admissible.

In conclusion, I must add, My Lord, that the Government of His Imperial Majesty hopes that Her Britanic Majesty's Government will, as far as lies in its power, call the attention of the industrious classes of this country to the Exhibition of 1855, that they may show the same readiness in responding to the invitation now addressed to them that England experienced on our part in 1851.

Be pleased to receive, &c. &c.,

XV. If on or before the day appointed for appearance it shall be proved to the Court that the summons cannot be served in the manner above prescribed a second summons, appointing another day for the appearance of the Defendant, shall be issued.

XVI. Such summons may be served either personally, or by affixing a copy thereof to some conspicuous part of the place of abode of the Defendant, and also affixing a copy thereof in the Court-room.

XVII. If the second summons be served in manner aforesaid a reasonable time before the day appointed for the appearance of the Defendant, to enable him to appear on that day, it shall be deemed to have been duly served.

XVIII. If the Plaintiff shall not appear in person or by agent on the day appointed for the appearance of the parties, the Judge may, according to his judgment, either dismiss the suit or nonsuit the Plaintiff, or make a decree against him ex-parte.

XIX. If the Defendant shall not appear by himself or an agent on the day fixed, and the Court shall be satisfied that the summons has been duly served, the case shall be heard and decided ex-parte, as if the Defendant were present.

XX. Provided that when a decree shall be made against a party ex-parte, and such party shall appear in person or by agent within a reasonable time afterwards, and shall show sufficient cause for his previous non-appearance by himself or agent, the Judge, upon such terms and conditions as he may think just, may rescind the decree; and may also order restitution if the decree shall have been executed: but no decree shall be reversed without previously summoning the party interested to support it, and allowing him to show cause by himself or his agent why it should not be rescinded.

XXI. If upon the day fixed for the Defendant's appearance the Plaintiff and Defendant shall appear before the Court in person or by agent, the Judge shall interrogate the parties present or their agents, so as to ascertain the precise point or points at issue between them, which he shall then determine and declare. He shall next interrogate the parties or their agents as to the proof which each desires to bring forward, and as to the documents, if any, which he requires to be produced by any party or witness, and he shall limit the parties to such witnesses and proofs as they shall satisfy him are needful to prove the point or points declared to be at issue. The whole of the interrogatories and the determination of the point or points at issue and the order made by the Judge as to the witnesses and proofs, shall be reduced to writing by the Judge in his own hand, and the record shall be attested by the signature of the Judge. The Judge shall then fix a day for continuing the hearing of the case and receiving the proofs, and the parties must produce their witnesses by that day, either by procuring their attendance voluntarily or by judicial summons. After the arrival of the day so fixed, the hearing shall not be again deferred unless good and sufficient reason be shown to the Court for such further postponement.

XXII. Every party and also every witness shall produce, or cause to be produced, any document in his possession which the Judge shall require him to produce.

XXIII. All processes shall be served or executed by or through Officers of the Court at the expense of the parties, and the amount of such expense shall be part of the costs in the suit; the Court may in its discretion exempt pauper parties from the payment of the expense of serving or executing process.

XXIV. The Court may at any time pending a suit, upon due cause shown, cause the attendance of principal parties instead of agents, recording the reason in each instance for so doing. In such case if the party required to attend shall fail to do so, the Judge may proceed in the same manner as where the party in other cases fails to appear by himself or his agent.

XXV. Any witness whose expenses for his journey to and from the Court, and for the period of his probable detention (at a reasonable rate to be fixed by the Court) shall have been deposited in Court by the party desiring his attendance, and to whom the fact of the deposit having been made shall have been made known by the terms of the summons addressed to him, shall, if he shall without lawful excuse refuse or omit to attend when duly summoned, be subjected at the discretion of the Court to fine or imprisonment, or both.

XXVI. All parties and witnesses who shall be examined must be examined in their own language viva voce by the Judge, in the presence of the parties or their agents, or of such of them as shall attend, and the substance of their evidence must be reduced to writing, and translated for the information of any party by whom such language shall not be understood. Each party in a suit may examine and cross-examine the opposite party and all witnesses in the suit. The proceedings shall be recorded in English in the Courts of the Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioners, the Assistants, and of the Extra-Assistants (if they have a knowledge of English); otherwise, and in all other Courts, in the language of the country.

XXVII. The evidence having been gone through and the parties or such of them as desire it having been respectively heard by themselves or their agents in support of their cases, a decision shall be given by the Judge, which must be reduced to writing in his own hand, together with the reasons on which it is founded. The Judge shall at the same time declare what have been the actual costs of the suit, and by what parties and in what proportion they are to be paid.

XXVIII. The Commissioners have authority to fix, with the approval of the Government, the scale of pleader's fees to be awarded as costs of suit.

XXIX. The cost of serving processes shall be calculated according to the actual rate of the pay of the Officers employed to serve them for the time during which they were occupied in the service. And if a process be sent by the public dâk, then according to the rate of postage which, if it had not been sent "on service," it would have been necessary to pay for its transmission.

XXX. Any Judge except a Goung Gyoop may, at the time of deciding a suit, punish either party for fraudulent or vexatious conduct in the course of the suit by a fine, commutable if not paid to imprisonment for not more than one year. In such case a Goung Gyoop may send the party in custody for trial and punishment to the Deputy Commissioner or Assistant.

XXXI. All documentary evidence which shall be adduced upon the trial of a suit must be filed and placed among the records. If original documents shall be returned to the parties, authenticated copies must be substituted on the file.

XXXII. Appeals from decisions already passed, or which shall hereafter be passed, must be made in writing within ten days from the decision appealed against.

XXXIII. They may either be presented to the appellate Court, or to the Court from which appeal is made.

XXXIV. Appeals made after the expiration of ten days, as above prescribed, shall not be received, unless good cause of delay be shown to the satisfaction of the appellate Court.

XXXV. When an appeal has been admitted, the appellate Court shall fix a day for the hearing, and shall notify the same to the Appellant and to the Respondent; and on the day fixed the parties present shall be heard by themselves or their agents, and the appeal tried and decided. If further evidence be deemed necessary by the superior Court, it will be called for, or the case sent to the lower Court for further investigation. The superior Court may re-examine any of the parties or witnesses examined by the lower Court.

XXXVI. A regular appeal from every original decision of the Commissioners, and a special appeal from every decision of the Commissioners in regular appeal, shall lie to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut at Calcutta, under the rules prescribed for appeals to that Court.

XXXVII. Every Court may cause the immediate execution of its decrees by giving possession of the thing awarded, or in the case of debt, damages or costs by process against the person of the defendant, or against his lands, houses, goods and other effects, or by both such processes if it shall appear to the Judge to be necessary.

XXXVIII. Provided also that it shall be in the discretion of the Judge, previously to issuing execution upon a decree made ex-parte, to require from the decree-holder sufficient security to make such restitution as may be ordered in case the decree be set aside by the Court.

XXXIX. Provided also that no debtor be imprisoned in execution of his creditor shall have paid one month's subsistence in advance, at a rate varying from one anna to four annas per diem, at the discretion of the Judge, and so on previous to the commencement of each month of imprisonment; failing which, the debtor is to be released, and must not again be imprisoned for the same debt.

XL. Provided also that no debtor shall be imprisoned in execution after he shall have satisfied the Court that he has done his best to pay the debt, and has no property or effects remaining from which the same can be charged; provided that if upon petition of the decree-holder or otherwise it shall appear to any Court above that of a Goung Gyoop, that the Defendant has fraudulently alienated or disposed of any of his property or effects, or that he has committed any other wilful misfeasance for the purpose of defrauding his creditors in general, or the Plaintiff in the suit, such Court may sentence the Defendant to simple imprisonment for a fixed term not exceeding one year, and after the expiration of that imprisonment he shall be released. But such imprisonment shall not extinguish his liability to satisfy the decree, or from having execution issued against any lands, houses or effects which shall then belong to him, or to which he shall at any future time become entitled.

XLI. Every appellate Court may upon appeal stay execution of the decree appealed against, causing security to be taken from the Appellant, if necessary, for the eventual satisfaction of the award with costs.

XLII. An Office for the Registry of Deeds shall be established in the several Districts of these Provinces, under the immediate charge of the Deputy Commissioner or Assistant, as the Commissioner shall determine. A single book, to be made of paper of English manufacture, shall suffice; the pages of such book are to be numbered, and each leaf is to be signed with his initials by the Registrar, who is to certify at the end of the book how many pages it contains, and to affix his signature at full length with the date of the certificate. A fee of one Rupee is to be paid on the Registry of any deed, and a fee of eight annas on a copy being taken from the book, and a fee of four annas for permission to inspect the book, which is always to be done in presence of the Registrar. The fees are to be the perquisite of the Registrar, who is to defray the expense attending the purchase and preservation of books, and keep a record of his receipts. It shall be optional with parties to register deeds or not as they think proper.

XLVI. Provided that every Goung Gyoop, who before or after the completion of a trial may think the sentence fit to be passed heavier than that which he is empowered to pass, shall transmit the proceedings to the Deputy Commissioner to whom he is subordinate, and shall also cause the parties and their witnesses to appear before the Deputy Commissioner, who may receive and try the same. XLVIII. If the Commissioner be of opinion, after the trial of any case, that a more severe sentence should be passed, he shall forward the proceedings with his opinion to the Court of Nizamut Adawlut at Calcutta, and the said last-mentioned Court may, if they approve of the proceedings held on the trial, pass any sentence warranted by law for the offence which they may deem adequate to the same, or if they disapprove of the proceedings held on the trial, may pass such order thereon as may seem fit; provided that no sentence of death shall be passed except by the concurrent voices of two or more Judges of the last-mentioned Court.

LI. If the accused, being duly summoned, fail to appear and cannot be arrested, the Court may attach his property of all kinds, and after one month may declare it forfeited to Government.

LII. All processes shall be served or executed by or through Officers of the Court, and without expense to the parties, except in misdemeanors [illegible] cases, in which the Court in its discretion [illegible] think that such expense ought to be borne by [illegible] at whose instance the process shall be issued.

LIII. Any witness who shall [illegible] lawful excuse refuse or omit to attend when duly summoned, or shall refuse to give evidence or to produce any document in his possession which he shall be summoned to produce and which the Court shall order him to produce, shall be subject, at the discretion of the Court, to fine or imprisonment, or both, according to the extent of power vested in the Court to fine and imprison offenders.

After hearing the evidence for the defence, or after hearing the defence if the accused shall name no witnesses, the Court shall except in cases transmitted as above mentioned pass sentence, and shall immediately carry its sentence into execution. The proceedings shall be recorded in English in the Courts of the Commissioners, Deputy Commissioners and Assistants, and in all other Courts in the language of the country.

LVIII. The whole or any portion of a fine levied from an accuser or accused under these Rules may, at the discretion of the Court, be paid to the party aggrieved by the offence for which the fine is levied.

LXV. An appeal shall lie to the Deputy Commissioner from every sentence or order passed by a Goung Gyoop; and to the Commissioner from every sentence or order passed by a Deputy Commissioner or Assistant in trials held without the assistance of a Jury, and in trials in which the sentence may have been contrary to the verdict of a Jury.

LXXV. Each district is formed into divisions, under Goung Gyoops, and circles comprising one or more villages under Thoogyees or Rawa Goungs.

LXXVI. Each circle is divided into portions of country called Prens or Quengs, and these constitute the tracts upon which a separate assessment is fixed.

LXXVII. It is the duty of the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung annually, or at such longer periods as may be directed by the Government, to measure and assess the lands of each cultivator in his circle; and after the assessment has been approved by the Deputy Commissioner or Assistant, to collect the revenue so assessed, and for that purpose to present to each cultivator a bill with a distinct specification of each item of demand.

LXXVIII. It is also the duty of the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung annually to make a return of the capitation tax payable by each individual, and after the return has been approved by the Deputy Commissioner or Assistant, to collect the tax so assessed, presenting to each tax-payer a bill with a distinct specification of each item of demand.

LXXIX. The standard of measurement in Tenasserim is the English acre of 43,560 square feet. The standard of measurement in Arracan is the Bengal beegah of 14,400 square feet.

LXXX. Every Goung Gyoop's division, and every Thoogyee or Rawa Goung's circle, has a distinct boundary. Each cultivator will pay revenue for each of the fields he cultivates to the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung in whose circle such field is situated. Capitation tax will be paid to the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung in whose circle the tax-payer resides.

LXXXI. No land shall be liable to the payment of revenue more than once in a year. The rates of Land Revenue Assessment shall be fixed by the Commissioner, subject to the approval of Government; but they shall in no case exceed three rupees an acre, except within the towns of Akyab and Khyouk Phyoo, as provided in Act No. XXXV. of 1852.

LXXXV. Any person who fails to pay any amount of revenue, tax or duty due by him, within ten days after a demand being made and a receipt offered by or by order of a public officer; and any person who after diligent search cannot be found, in order that the tax bill or receipt may be presented to him, shall be liable to the following processes:

1*st*. A written notice, to be issued by the Deputy Commissioner or Assistant on the complaint of the Thoogyee or other Officer, warning the party that unless payment of the amount of revenue duty or tax, together with all expenses incurred by reason of the default, be made within ten days from the date of the notice being served upon him, or affixed to his dwelling, he will be liable to arrest and imprisonment in the civil jail, and his property, real and personal, will be attached, and will be liable to be sold in satisfaction of said.

2*nd*. On the expiration of the time fixed, if the defaulter still neglects to pay or to appear, he may be apprehended and confined in the civil jail; the whole of his property will at the same time be attached; his personal property will, after due public notice of not less than ten days, be sold first, and if that is insufficient to satisfy the demand, then, and not otherwise, his real property also.

3*rd*. After the sale of personal or real property, the defaulter shall not be liable to further imprisonment, or to arrest, if it shall appear to the Deputy Commissioner or Assistant before whom the case may be brought, that he has not wilfully concealed or made away with any of his property, but has done his best to pay the amount due.

4*th*. All Timber shall be liable to be attached for the duty due upon it, and if such duty be not paid within ten days from the time of such attachment, the Timber shall be liable, after due public notice of not less than ten days, to be sold to satisfy the demand.

LXXXVI. All applications for remission of revenue duty or tax must be made to the Deputy Commissioner or Assistant within ten days from the date of a receipt being given or tendered to the person from whom revenue or tax is demanded by or by authority of a revenue Officer. If the period of ten days be exceeded, such application shall not be received, unless upon good cause being shown for the delay. Applications for remission on account of drought, inundation, blight, or other injury to or failure of crop, shall be made while that crop is still on the ground, or they will not be received unless good cause shall be shown for the delay.

LXXXVII. Land rented or cultivated by a defaulter, though owned by another person, is nevertheless liable to be sold for arrears of revenue due thereon, in like manner as if it were the property of the defaulter.

LXXXVIII. Thoogyees or Rawa Goungs are empowered to make grants of small portions of waste or jungle land for paddy cultivation, not exceeding twenty beegahs, under the following Regulations:—

1*st*. On a person making application for waste or jungle land, the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung shall go to the spot himself, and make a sketch of the ground; if he cannot do so, he shall measure it and note its boundaries. He shall then attach a notice to the Zayat, or other public place of the nearest village, and otherwise in the most effectual manner make it generally known that an application has been made for the piece of ground, and that unless cause is shown to the contrary within fifteen days from the date of the notice, it will be granted to the applicant. Should no other claimant appear within the time stated, the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung shall give the applicant a grant of the land in such form as may be determined by the Commissioner, and enter the grant in a register of the same form, to be kept by him for the purpose. The grants shall be numbered annually by each Thoogyee or Rawa Goung, commencing at the beginning of each Burmese year.

2nd. If any one shall afterwards claim the land, he must file a suit in the civil Court for its recovery, but in the event of a decree being given in his favor, the land shall not be made over to him until after the ensuing harvest.

3rd. In granting waste or jungle lands under the above rule, preference shall be given by the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung to the owner or owners of the field nearest to such waste land, who shall make application for it within the term of fifteen days, stated in the notice aforesaid.

4th. Lands granted under the above rule shall be exempted from assessment for different periods, according to the description of jungle upon them, agreeably to the following table :—

Class.	Description of Jungle.	Period of Exemption.
1	Long and short grass, if it have not been cultivated within the memory of man, ...	1 year to 2, according to the description of grass.
2	Kaing, Thekkay, Kyeik, Reeds, Bushes, &c., ...	3 years.
3	Small trees not exceeding one foot in diameter at 2 cubits above the ground, ...	4 years.
4	Large trees exceeding one foot in diameter at 2 cubits from the ground, ...	6 years.

5th. Land which in order to be cultivated requires to be thoroughly drained, or strongly embanked to prevent the entrance of salt water, shall be entitled to the same period of exemption as land of the 4th class, without reference to the description of jungle upon it. Land which requires the construction of embankments at an expense probably not exceeding one rupee per beegah, of the quantity of land reclaimed by means of the embankment, shall be entitled to the same period of exemption as land of either the 2nd or 3rd class, according to the judgment of the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung, without reference to the description of jungle upon it.

6th. Land may be granted under the above rule by the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung for the purpose of planting fruit trees or other trees or plants, and such land shall be exempted from assessment for periods according to the following table, without reference to the description of jungle upon it at the time of its allotment :—

Class.	Description of Trees and Shrubs.	Period of Exemption.
1	Cocoanut, Betelnut, Nayan, Spice and all Palm Trees, except Dhanee, ...	10 years.
2	Dhanee, Mango, Jack and all other Fruit Trees, except Plantains, ..	7 years.
3	Plantain, Pan-vine, Sugar-cane, (not being annual,) Neeba, Mulberry, ..	1 year.

7th. The class to which any land shall be considered to belong is to be determined by the description of jungle existing, or fruit trees or shrubs to be planted on three-fourths of its area, or as near that proportion as possible. Where plantains are planted bonâ fide only as a shade to cocoanut or other trees, they will not be considered as forming a plantain garden.

8th. No person shall without a general or special order of Government have new land on the above terms of exemption, otherwise than as an addition to his existing cultivation, or unless he has never cultivated land before. The circumstance, however, of a cultivator leaving part of his existing cultivation bonâ fide fallow will not preclude him from obtaining fresh allotments of waste or jungle land.

9th. If land be granted under the above rule for the purpose of planting fruit trees, or other trees or plants, it shall be forfeited unless three-fourths of its area be planted in accordance with the terms of the grant and within a period to be specified therein.

LXXXIX. A Deputy Commissioner or Assistant may make grants of land not exceeding two hundred and ninety beegahs or one hundred acres in extent each, on the terms above mentioned. They will be registered by him in a form similar to that prescribed in the preceding rule.

XC. Grants of waste land in excess of two hundred and ninety beegahs or one hundred acres shall be under such rules, and on such conditions, as the Government may from time to time determine.

XCI. If any cultivator who shall receive land under the above rules shall abandon the land so allotted to him after the period of exemption, under circumstances which prove that he has used the land only for the profit to be gained from it during such period of free occupancy, and not for the purpose of ulterior cultivation, he shall be liable, at the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner or Assistant, to assessment in arrears for the whole period of exemption, either at the full rate for land of similar description in the circle in which the land is situated, or at any reduced rate.

XCII. Persons to whom land has descended from their ancestors, or persons who shall have purchased or taken on mortgage land which shall have descended from ancestors, shall, on agreeing to pay the fixed assessment, have the right of reclaiming their land within a term of ten years after such land may have been made over by the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung, or other Government Officer, to another party for cultivation ; provided, however, that if the party to whom the land shall have been allotted by the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung shall have planted fruit trees, strongly embanked it, or otherwise invested capital in the permanent improvement of the land, the person reclaiming it shall be allowed to do so only on paying to the person in occupation the value of such improvements, to be determined either by private arbitration or by a suit in Court, as shall be agreed upon by the parties.

XCIII. Persons who have held land obtained from a Thoogyee or Rawa Goung, or other revenue Officer, for an uninterrupted period of ten years, shall be allowed the same right, subject to the same provisions as in the last rule.

XCIV. All holders of land, whether coming under the above descriptions or not, shall report to the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung, in writing, before the full moon of Kasong in each year, whether there be any portion of the land previously held by them which they do not intend to cultivate themselves, or for which they have not provided a cultivator during the next season. The Thoogyee or Rawa Goung may then make over the land so left in his hands, or any portion of it, so that the portion be in one parcel, to any other person applying for it, subject to the rights of redemption laid down in Rules XCII. and XCIII. Unless a holder of land report to the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung, as above directed, he will be required to pay the tax on his land, whether it is cultivated or not. After having reported to the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung his intention not to cultivate, he can only again take land, or any portion of it, by authority from the Thoogyee or Rawa Goung, who may, if the land be not already made over to another party, restore it, or any portion of it, in one parcel, to the original holder.

XCV. The intention of reclaiming or of trying by a suit to reclaim land on the principles declared in Rules XCII. and XCIII. must be made known to the Thoogyee or Rawá Goung before the full moon of Kasong in each year, otherwise it will not, unless with the consent of the cultivator, be made over [illegible] after the ensuing harvest.

XCVI. All complaints relative to arrears of revenue, duty or tax, or disputed revenue accounts, shall be received and tried by the Deputy Commissioner or Assistant. A Deputy Commissioner may refer any such cases for trial to an Assistant. Every decision of a Deputy Commissioner or Assistant shall be subject to appeal to the Commissioner, if preferred within fifteen days from the date of the decision.

XCVII. London, 20th April 1853.

To the Right Hon'ble the Earl of Clarendon,
&c. &c. &c.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honor to announce to your Excellency, that His Majesty the Emperor has ordered, by a decree dated the 8th of March last, that an Universal Exhibition of Agricultural and Industrial products shall take place at Paris on the 1st of May 1855.

In hastening to make this communication to the Government of Her Britannic Majesty, I must at the same time, My Lord, assure it that the Exhibitors of this country who may respond to our invitation will receive all desirable facilities in regard to the reception, arrangement, and superintendence of their property in the Palace of Industry. A subsequent decree which I shall have the honor to communicate to your Excellency without delay, will determine the rest, in detailing the conditions on which our Universal Exhibition will be conducted, the rules to which the merchandize exhibited will be subject, and the various kinds of productions which will be admissible.

In conclusion, I must add, My Lord, that the Government of His Imperial Majesty hopes that Her Britannic Majesty's Government will, as far as lies in its power, call the attention of the industrious classes of this country to the Exhibition of 1855, that they may show the same readiness in responding to the invitation now addressed to them that England experienced on our part in 1851.

Be pleased to receive, &c. &c.,
